

TONGERLO TRIPEL

Haacht Brewery is a family-owned Belgian brewery with a rich history dating back to 1898. Located in the village of Boortmeerbeek, the brewery is one of Belgium's largest independent breweries. Haacht produces a diverse range of beers, including traditional Belgian ales, pilsners, and specialty beers, all brewed with a commitment to quality and craftsmanship.

Tongerlo Tripel is a renowned product from Haacht Brewery, characterized by its golden color and rich, complex flavor profile. This Belgian tripel boasts a well-balanced taste with fruity and spicy notes, underpinned by a subtle sweetness and a pleasant hop bitterness. The beer is known for its full-bodied nature and a slightly dry finish, making it a favorite among fans of traditional Belgian tripels.
