

LINDORES ABBEY THIRON VIRGIN OAK SINGLE CASK

Lindores Abbey Distillery is a renowned Scotch whisky distillery located in the heart of Fife, Scotland. Founded on the historic grounds of Lindores Abbey, which dates back to the 12th century, the distillery holds a significant place in whisky history, often cited as the "spiritual home" of Scotch whisky.

Lindores Abbey Thiron Virgin Oak Single Cask presents a captivating aroma characterized by rich notes of toasted oak, caramelized sugar, and hints of dried fruits. The nose is further enhanced by delicate floral undertones, providing a pleasant and inviting olfactory experience.

On the palate, this whisky offers a complex interplay of flavors. Initially, there is a burst of sweet vanilla and caramel, followed by layers of oak spice and nutty undertones. The virgin oak imparts a robust woody character, contributing to the whisky's depth and complexity. Subtle hints of dried fruits and a touch of honey add depth and dimension to the flavor profile, leading to a satisfying and lingering finish.
