

PARDALITO BRANCO

In Barco Wines area, there are many birds called 'pardais', which means 'sparrow'. In a team lunch dedicated to brainstorming, in a joke the name 'Pardalito' cam up, which means 'little sparrow'. The Pardalito, even with his short wings, flies far until his little daunting and courageous heart tells him to land. Welcome to their ambassador of true freshness, joy and youth.

The wine has a fresh aroma of citrus and minerality with a touch of lime and sline in the finish.

FOOD AND WINE PAIRING

Salads, fresh cheeses, and white meat.
