

LOUREIRO PREMIUM

It is their main brand and it has the company name. Barcos wines company was created in 1963 and has undergone some image changes in order to adapt to the market. In 2019 they made the latest re-branding and created a collection called: Naperon Collection - an elegant and strong image that shoots them into the long past of the "tell me how it went" and that stands out on the shelves.

The naperon, a small piece of lace or embroidery, which all Portuguese remember seeing in so many houses, was made with a specific needle and widely used to place on tables, televisions, sofas and beds, as a decorative or protective element.

The wine tastes of tropical fruits with a mouthful of fresh acidity. Well balanced aftertaste with a light body.
