SCHLUMBERGER SEKT GRÜNER VELTLINER BRUT

Schlumberger has been successfully developing the traditional method invented in Champagne since 1842 and continues to impress with excellent sparkling wines.

In the glass, the Grüner Veltliner from Schlumberger shimmers in a light yellow tone with greenish reflections. Its intense bouquet is fresh and fruity with light floral notes. Green apples and pears meet lively citrus notes and delicately tart tones of a late summer flower meadow. On the palate, the sparkling wine impresses with a delicate play of pearls that emphasizes the fresh and fruity hints of melon and grapefruit and adds spicy notes of ground pepper. A delicate balance of fruit and acid notes leads to a spirited finish. This makes Schlumberger's Grüner Veltliner an excellent representative of this popular Austrian grape variety, which clearly highlights the complexity.
