

LUNA

Muri is a Copenhagen-based producer that creates innovative, non-alcoholic fermented beverages using natural ingredients and fermentation techniques inspired by winemaking.

Their product Luna is a unique non-alcoholic drink with a rich and layered profile. Luna features vibrant notes of tart cherry, hibiscus, and cranberry, combined with earthy undertones and a hint of spice. The fermentation process adds a soft, tangy acidity and a gentle fizz that enhances the drink's complexity. This sophisticated beverage is ideal for pairing with more robust dishes or enjoyed on its own as a bold, non-alcoholic alternative with depth and character.
