

DELIRIUM DELIRIA

Delirium Deliria is a Belgian beer brewed by Huyghe Brewery, renowned for its iconic pink elephant logo. This special edition was first introduced in 2013 to celebrate International Women's Day and is brewed by female brewers.

Deliria is a pale golden ale with an alcohol content of 8.5%. Its aroma is characterized by fruity notes of apple and citrus, complemented by subtle hints of malt and spice. The taste is well-balanced with mild bitterness, fruity undertones, and a dry finish.
